Join the Miami Center for Architecture & Design on a custom curated journey for those seeking a broader knowledge of the intersection of art and architecture!

REGISTER TODAY! MCAD TRAVELS to Cuba! March 18-22, 2020

Created in partnership with the Copperbridge Foundation, this professionally guided tour will immerse you in the local culture and rhythms of daily life in Cuba, as we interact with local architects, artists and residents.

This specialized tour examines Cuba's evolving art and architecture communities in depth by connecting you to Cuban architects, researchers, and residents on a personal level.

Meet local architects, visit their studios and projects and participate in roundtable discussions about design and development. See first-hand how architecture and design are making a difference for Cuba's private sector.

Up to 16 AIA Learning Units, 10 HSW

IMPORTANT CONSIDERATIONS

- Please make sure that your passport is valid for at least 6 months after the Cuba Tour.
- Cuban Born Attendees: Anyone who was born in Cuba and emigrated to the US before 1970 must apply for a special Visa.
- To apply, please provide a copy of your American passport, and documentation proving your presence in the United States before 1970 (e.g. a college diploma, high school transcript, etc.).
- Please email copies of these documents to info@miamicad.org in addition to completing the registration form that will be sent to you.
- Cost for application for the special visa is $250.
- If you have any questions about this process, please email info@miamicad.org and we will put you in touch with our Cuba travel expert.

CANCELLATION POLICY

Because of the custom nature of this trip, as well as the documentation and other special services needed to accommodate MCAD TRAVELS in Cuba, there are no refunds for cancellations initiated by the registrant after February 1, regardless of the reason. If you register and find that you cannot attend, send an email as soon as possible to info@miamicad.org and if received before 12:00 midnight EST on February 1, 2020, a full refund will be processed, minus a $50 administration fee. If you need to cancel after February 2, a refund MAY be available if there is a waiting list and we can fill your space, but it is not guaranteed.

Should the conference be cancelled because of a force majeure event, such as inclement weather or if the United States ceases to allow travel to Cuba entirely, a full refund minus $100 per registrant will be processed once MCAD TRAVELS receives the funds in return from Cuba.

TRAVEL INSURANCE

MCAD TRAVELS and the Copperbridge Foundation highly recommend that you purchase travel insurance that includes full cancellation insurance that covers all cancellation scenarios. This can be done through your travel agent or online.

FORCE MAJEURE

The performance of this agreement by either party may be affected by force majeure (including, but not limited to, acts of God, acts of war or other acts of enemies, government regulation, disaster, strikes, floods, civil disorder, curtailment of transportation facilities, or other emergency or event beyond the control of the parties), thus making it inadvisable, unsafe, illegal, or impossible to provide required accommodations and/or meeting facilities, hold the meeting, or travel to the meeting. In event of force majeure, either party to this agreement may terminate the agreement upon providing written notice to the other party without penalty or obligation. Such right of termination shall not be unreasonably exercised.

In addition, MCAD TRAVELS reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to cancel this tour. In that event, MCAD TRAVELS shall refund to you all registration fees that it has received from you for this meeting, but shall have no further obligation to you of any type, whether monetary or otherwise. Accordingly, MCAD TRAVELS shall in no event have any liability to you based on claims for indirect, special or consequential damages of any type whatsoever, and shall have no other obligation to you of any type except as expressly stated in the preceding sentence.
