WHAT TO DO ABOUT SCHOOL OPENINGS. PBS NEWSHOUR HAS A GREAT PIECE ON SAFETY, DESIGN AND THE QUESTION OF WHETHER WE SHOULD SEND OPEN OUR SCHOOLS IN THE FALL.

As confirmed cases of COVID-19 continue to rise in the U.S., so does the debate over whether schools should reopen to students in the fall. Where do health experts, the Trump administration, school officials across and teachers the country stand on welcoming students back to classrooms amid the coronavirus pandemic? What steps should parents consider to keep their kids safe? TUNE IN HERE
